

I am deaf. I will not watch a show or movie that is not captioned. There is no point in wasting my time getting only half of the information.

Many shows do not have quality captions, some have garbled captions, others are not captioned at all. For example, re-runs do not show the captions, when the original show had captions.

It is VERY important to have clear, accurate and visible captions during emergencies.